

The Utopian Years?
Radical Left movements in the France of Pompidou

Wed. 11 May 2011, 1-5pm

University of Portsmouth
School of Languages and Area Studies
Park Building
Room 2.09

Programme:

13.00 -13.15- Introduction

13.15- 13.45: Paper 1: Manus McGrogan, University of Portsmouth,
L'Imagination au pouvoir: Radical left press in the aftermath of May '68.

13.50- 14.20: Paper 2: Paper 4: Fanny Bugnon, Université d'Angers,
'Power at the end of a gun': The emergence of armed struggle from the French leftist underground of the 1970s.

14.20- 14.40: Discussion

14.40-15.00: Coffee & refreshments

15.00-15.30, Paper 3: Chris Warne, University of Sussex,
(Mis)reading youth activism in 1970s France: The case of the students against la loi Debré 1972-73.

15.30-16.00, Paper 4: Bibia Pavard, Université de Paris Sciences-Po,
State, media and movement: Feminists and the fight for free abortion and contraception in Pompidou's France.

16.00-16.30, Paper 5: Daniel Gordon, Edgehill University,
Immigrants and Intellectuals: The Rise of Anti-Racism, 1971-1974.

16.30-16.50: Discussion

17.00: Conference close.